Mantle of the Expert	Autumn 1: We are Historians helping visitors understand the significance of the Peterloo Massacre. The commission is to create a live exhibit that helps visitors understand the significance of the Peterloo Massacre through discussions, freeze frames & drawings. Autumn 2: We are Protesters at St. Peter's Field, standing up for our rights and demanding change. The commission is to march and protest at St Peter's Field	Spring 1: We are supporters in Action, partnering with Nicholas Winton to support children seeking refuge in Britain. The commission is to create a collaborative project where children engage in fundraising and awareness activities, helping their peers move to safety through kindness, teamwork, and advocacy. Spring 2: We are reporters covering the courageous efforts surrounding the evacuation of children during World War II, specifically highlighting the work of Nicholas Winton. Winton, a British humanitarian, played a pivotal role in rescuing hundreds of Jewish children from Nazi-occupied Europe, bringing them to safety in Britain. The commission's purpose is to document and support these historical efforts by creating a collaborative project where children today engage in fundraising and awareness-raising activities.	Summer 2: We are tour guides, creating a Guidebook for the tourists to have with lots of useful information from the discovery of the Labyrinth. Including background information about the history of Mayan culture, religion, etc.
